

John (Jack) Simon

Current Position: International Coaching Clinician and Consultant

Jack Simon was inducted into the American Swimming Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2007 after spending five decades as a head coach in the USA and multiple other countries including Mexico, Puerto Rico, China, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, and Thailand.

He has had the singular distinction of having a total of 75 of his athletes achieving “Top 25 world rankings”, breaking three world records, and competed in numerous Olympic Games. Jack placed two different teams to Top 3 in the U.S. National Championships, earned three U.S. Junior National team titles, and won numerous U.S. National Championships at the senior, junior, and age group levels.

As an ASCA Level V coach, Jack is a lifetime member of United States Swimming and the American Swimming Coaches Association and has spent over 25 years on the U.S. national coaching staff. He has served three terms on the board of directors of USA Swimming, led the American Swimming Coaches Association as president and vice president, and remains a Director of the Swim America program.

Jack has authored over 20 articles in technical publications. Most recently presented at the first FINA World Coaches Clinic in Singapore (2009). Prior to his career as a coach, Simon served in the United States Marine Corps from 1957-1960.